Wedding Bells

Each pupil wrote a formal invitation for the wedding and everyone dressed-up for the occasion. Ann the Vicar explained to the children what happens in a real Christian wedding and all the children enthusiastically took part as if it were real.

Everyone acted the parts extremely well and took the event very seriously...

Formal Letters

Each class wrote formal letters, complaining to companies about deforestation in the rain-forests of Africa or responded as a director of a company using persuasive writing, here are some extracts:

Risa W 4M (Tea company director) – ‘Furthermore we will provide your village with tea to drink, and the tea leaves can also be used in medicines. Children who can’t afford to go to school can be trained as tea farmers to earn money so that they can go to school. I hope after reading this you will want to be a tea farmer.’

Emily D 4B (Tea company director) – ‘My workers are now officially going to work for only five hours a day and I shall treat them well.’

Every year we are going to spend a lot of money we have made on planting new trees around the wider community, to help reduce deforestation.'

Tommy R 4B (Member of the public) – 'I am writing to the Ghana Cocoa Company to complain about how you treat the workers. You don't treat your workers well, it's mucky, horrifying and terrible. You are causing deforestation, the whole world needs trees, they make oxygen.'

Africa Mask Designs

Each class has made designs for their own African masks based on African masks where they are considering shapes and designs that create an African style. Currently the pupils are busy making their 3-D masks based on their designs. Here are designs by Sebastian G 4B (left) and Elliot S 4M

Monday 16th October 2014. Can I make observational notes on design for an Africa style mask?
